Although linear TV in early 2015 was still adopted by 88% of Australian households, the figure is falling gradually, and the advent of OTT viewing as well as IPTV offers from Telstra's new bundled video and broadband services and other major ISPs will see a more rapid shift from linear to time-shifted TV in coming years, especially since Netflix entered the market.

Foxtel has seen steady revenue growth during the last few years but the company has struggled to increase pay-TV penetration in Australia, even with competitively priced basic packages as low as AUD$10 per month.

Ooyala reported that Australian households that subscribe to SVOD services have increased the number of services to 1.7 from 1.5 since 2015. More than 2.7 million new active subscribers came in at the end of June 2016, an increase of 46% compared to the same period a year ago.

Telstye found that the total number of paid SVOD subscriptions will double to 4.1 million in mid-2019, a huge rise from the 1.9 million subscribers in June 2016, totally exceeding pay-TV subscriptions. However, as of June 2016 pay-TV has a total of 3.3 million subscribers and continues to enjoy a healthy revenue lead over SVOD.

Roy Morgan Research found Netflix the clear market leader, followed by local SVOD services Stan and Presto. Both Australian services have been growing faster than Netflix in the past 12 months, primarily as the "second SVOD" service in homes. About 20% Netflix customers have more than one SVOD service.

Gender Matters

In December 2015, Screen Australia launched a five point AUD$5 million plan over a three-year span for Gender Matters, a suite of initiatives addressing the gender imbalance within the Australian screen industry. With 32% of women working as producers, 23% as writers and only 16% as directors, the imbalance is most notable in the traditional film industry. The five point plan included an immediate $3 million allocation of jump-start funding to get female-led projects production ready within two years, and a further AUD$2 million of support for placements, distribution incentives, marketing and industry networking.

Gender Matters' launch of the Brilliant Stories and Brilliant Careers programmes garnered huge success, receiving a record-breaking 452 applications, the most applications ever received for any funding programme. When the 58 recipients of these two programmes, it marked the largest cohort of projects funded in a single day in the agency's history. A combined 45 story ideas and 13 industry projects led by Australian women shared in more than AUD$3 million of funding.

Gender Matters' final two steps were unveiled in August 2016, namely Better Deals and Attachments for Women, at the MIFF 37°South Market in Melbourne. Better Deals is a $1 million pilot programme, creating a new incentive for distributors considering quality female-driven feature film projects. Screen Australia matched the distributor's minimum guarantee of AUD$100,000 or more (up to AUD$300,000), provided as a grant contribution towards the marketing of the film. Attachments for Women is run in conjunction with the existing Production Investment Programmes. It requires that all scripted drama projects that receive more than AUD$500,000 from Screen Australia to have a compulsory, paid female attachment position built into the budget.

Key Developments

The fifth-annual Asian Animation Summit (AAS) will take place in Brisbane, Australia from November 22 to 24. Organisers are anticipating roughly 200 attendees taking part at this year's event, which is designed to attract producers of animation who are interested in co-producing projects with partners in Asia-Pacific, as well as broadcasters, distributors and investors from the region and beyond. Over the course of the three-day event, 24 projects from Australia, Korea, Malaysia, Thailand and elsewhere in Asia-Pacific that are brand-new to the market and looking for financing and partners will be presented.

Thirteen Australian documentaries were shown at the 2016 Hot Docs Canadian International Documentary Festival, including eight feature documentaries and five shorts (as well as a music video from an Australian director). Putupari and the Rainmakers, winner of the 2015 CinéfestOZ Film Prize, had its international premiere at the festival and was shown as part of the Made In Australia programme.

In April 2016, Network Ten, Nine Network and Seven Network announced the launch of a new joint venture marketing company, Think TV, aiming to persuade advertisers to continue to invest in free-to-air television. For the first time the two television sectors will be aligned under a new industry body to promote television's scale and effectiveness for advertisers across all screens.

According to IBISWorld's TV & Radio Broadcasting market research report, China's TV and Radio broadcasting industry is expected to increase at a yearly rate of 13.0%. The figure is driven by the accelerating convergence of telecommunications, internet, and cable TV network operations and digitisation rate. In 2015, revenue in the industry is expected to increase 9.8% from 2010 to $7.2 billion.

With an estimated population of nearly 1.4 billion, the world's most populous nation boasts the largest number of internet users; 668 million. With nearly half of its population on the internet, online video websites- Youku Tudou, iQIYI, PPTV, Sohu, Tencent, LeTV- are increasingly more popular.

Youku Tudou, China's biggest online video giant, features commissioned programmes from a myriad of channels including Hong Kong's TVB and CTE and also user-generated content.

In November 2015, Youku Tudou and Mirriad Advertising entered a long-term exclusive collaboration arrangement in China. The alliance will see Youku Tudou connecting brands with Mirriad's technology, enabling advertisers to digitally insert their brands into video content. Samsung capitalised on the first Mirriad campaign that lasted throughout 6 episodes over a two week period.

In that same month, Alibaba and Youku Tudou signed a definitive merger agreement whereby an affiliate of the Alibaba Group will acquire Youku Tudou in an all-cash transaction. Shareholders of Youku Tudou will have the right to receive $27.60 per American Depository Share (representing 18 ordinary shares of Youku Tudou) in cash.

Prior to this in late September 2015, G.hn standard in-home networking products were made available on Chinese e-commerce sites such as Alibaba and Taobao. The products include G.hn power line adapters attached via Ethernet to broadband gateways. Embedded in IP-Networked HD TVs, G.hn can also be used to connect Blu-Ray players and set top boxes. With G.hn, users can automatically gain access to the Internet and other home network devices as soon as they plug their smart TV into an AC outlet.

In March 2015, Irdeto announced its latest anti-piracy success with Alibaba, whereby over 5,000 online advertisements for pirate devices from 71 manufacturers and suppliers on Alibaba.com were identified and taken down in a month. Alibaba played a pre-emptive role in assisting with the removal of 5,389 ads marketing pirate devices offering content from Irdeto's pay-TV operator customers.

As at 15 June 2015, iQIYI had reached five million paid streaming subscribers; a 765% annual increase. With a wide range of premium content to its members, iQIYI hosted over 60% of movies played in cinemas in China, alongside over 400 internet-only movies.

Besides acquiring programmes, online video platforms like Youku Tudou have started to include more local productions via user generated content. Youku Tudou has a revenue sharing programme that allows qualified participants to be paid from advertisements placed in their videos which encourages more user-generated content.

In November 2015, Honyee Media's Chinese version of BBC's Top Gear launched its first five episodes of the second season with a combined audience of 217 million across TV and online. Also, two-part series, China From Above, had gone viral with 130 million views on Tencent.

STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS

In 2015, DHX Media signed a series of deals with these SVOD operators- namely Alibaba in September, and iQIYI and LeTV in November. iQIYI had acquired AVOD and SVOD rights to more than 400 half-hours of content. LeTV acquired OTT TV and web broadcast rights to 313 half-hours of Teletubbies in English and Mandarin. Alibaba had acquired more than 2500 half-hours of content for its VOD service.

In October 2015, BBC Worldwide signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Mango TV. The partnership will allow exploring for opportunities capitalizing on the strengths of each party, including co-production and format opportunities in iconic BBC programmes targeting the Chinese and global market.

BBC Worldwide had also signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Shanghai Media Group (SMG) last April, expanding their strategic relationship to include programme and format production, programme distribution and co-production opportunities. The agreement will see BBC Worldwide working with several of SMG's subsidiaries including BesTV, DocuChina, Dragon TV, Wings Media and Toonmax Media.

INTERNET CONTENT DELIVERY

In October 2014, Akamai Technologies announced a strategic partnership agreement with China Telecom Corporation's cloud division CT Cloud. As part of the partnership, CT Cloud will offer an integrated solution that incorporates Akamai's full suite of media delivery, web performance and cloud security offerings to Chinese businesses. The partnership is also designed to enable close cooperation between the two companies in areas of technology and network access.

CT Cloud plans to leverage Akamai for content delivery network (CDN) technology that will be available for the delivery of its Cloud services. Akamai enables operators to deploy a highly scalable, completely turnkey CDN that leverages the same technologies found within the Akamai Intelligent PlatformTM.

PCCW Global, China Telecom Global (CTG) and Chunghwa Telecom International (CHTI) took the initiative to create a unified IPX (IP-eXchange) platform for Greater China, with agreements signed last year in May. The three partners will improve their seamlessly integrated service to their carrier, multinational and consumer customers, with unified platform.

Services supported from the deal includes VoIPX, GRX, Diameter, HD calling, HD video conferencing, Ethernet, cloud offerings and SDN. The platform will connect IP services between mobile and fixed networks using MPLS as the transport layer.

CO-PRODUCTIONS

China has also upped its number of co-productions, working with several broadcasters and producers in the Asia-Pacific region. Huaso Film/TV Digital Production, the joint venture production company of Sony Pictures Television (SPT), and CCTV6's HuaCheng Pictures concluded a deal with Croton Media to co-produce a local version of the highly popular and critically-acclaimed comedy Mad About You for audiences in China. Shanghai Media Group has acquired the exclusive, first-run satellite TV rights to the series which will debut early January 2016. The deal was made in December 2014.

In addition to Mad About You, Huaso has produced local versions of other popular SPT scripted and non-scripted formats in China, including talk show Dr. Oz, as well as competition series Raid the Cage and Dancing Nation.

In August 2015, UK drama producer Left Bank Pictures and China International Television Corporation (CITVC) have signed a co-development deal for an English language drama for the Chinese and international market. The deal will see both parties taking ideas to the table with a view to selecting one series to go into production.

Is That Really Your Voice? debuted on iQIYI with its first five episodes receiving 200 million views, great reviews and taking the title of the most-watched online show in the country's history. The format from Global Agency has 24 episodes planned in total.

In September 2015, the Chinese version of Big Brother, the international reality television franchise, begins production on the outskirts of Mumbai, making use of the available resources, infrastructure and expertise from Endemol Shine India. The Chinese version will be screened exclusively on Youku Tudou.

In December 2015, MyChinaChannel (MCC) and China Business Network (CBN) announced that they will be co-developing two brand new infotainment/documentary series as well as 100 hours of financial business content in English.

In November 2014, CASBAA urged the Hong Kong legislature to end a decade of delay and pass amendments to Hong Kong's copyright law to give content creators and owners the right- at least in theory- to authorise electronic dissemination of their content.

CASBAA Chief Policy Officer, John Medeiros noted that CASBAA – along with other copyright industry groups – has been pressing for improvements in Hong Kong's law for years. In the decade since the government began this process, he said, "The world of TV has been transformed. Old copyright laws never foresaw the degree to which broadband connections can be used to bring huge quantities of pirated digital content to every home in Hong Kong from places where copyright protection is weak.

"Establishment of a right to authorise communication of copyrighted works will not solve the piracy problem," he said, and further steps are urgently needed. "Hong Kong is now way behind the curve," Medeiros added. In addition, CASBAA is urging the government to immediately begin considering further steps to restore balance and provide a new breath of life to Hong Kong's creative industries.

In December the following year, CASBAA renewed its appeal to pass amendments to Hong Kong's copyright law- critical to the future of the content industries in the SAR. Medeiros says, "Hong Kong's IP law is in dire need of updating in order to take account of legal and illegal digital distribution of copyrighted materials, including entire online packages of pirated pay-TV programming."

The legislature held considered a series of more than 900 amendments to weaken the bill, and the netizen lobby is pushing for the bill's defeat. However, opposition lawmakers in Hong Kong pushed back discussion till next year as the debate ran out of time in the last full meeting of 2015. Last updated in 2006, the government and industry believes that the copyright law should be updated and to restrict online piracy.

INDIA

Livemint reported that India's pay-TV industry is expected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 9.2% to hit $14.5 billion in revenue by 2021 compared to a projected $ 9.4 billion in 2016.

By 2025, 70% of India's pay-TV base is estimated to be digitised, growing from 93 million subscribers to 129 million from 2016 to 2025 in light of the digital addressable system (DAS) being implemented by the government.

According to the Information & Broadcasting Ministry, nearly 41 million set-top boxes have been seeded in Phase 3 areas and Phase 4 digitisation is due in December 2016. The government has completed Phase 3 of digitisation barring few states which have demanded extension in the deadline.

Pay-TV Policies

Copyright Protection

Many local agencies are not well educated on copyright matters, leading to relaxed enforcement on copyright infringement, even though the domestic copyright laws on signal piracy are good. Thanks to the cable digitisation programme, the government hopes to eradicate commercial fraud and underdeclaration. Online piracy is still very difficult to control.

Regulation of OTT

The local OTT-TV services are required to follow the same content code as cable TV networks but application to offshore OTT providers has not been tested. The Advertising Standards Council of India, a self-regulatory body, seeks to regulate advertisements in any media, including online media.

Key Developments

Google unveiled a set of enhanced features to bring alive the Olympic mood among Indian fans for the 2016 Rio Olympic Games. The new set of features helped bring fans closer to knowing more about their favourite athletes and sports disciplines. Fans across the country even chose to get automatic updates on top event and medal wins. Features included using Google Search to discover the event schedule, medal counts, results and trending athletes, viewing highlights on YouTube and using Google Maps to explore Rio and Olympic venues.

A+E Networks and TV18 launched FYI TV18, a contemporary factual and lifestyle entertainment channel. The new channel will draw on the success of FYI globally, a distinctive brand in the marketplace that embraces adventurous, personalized and innovative lifestyle programming. In the U.S., FYI ranks as among the most upscale entertainment networks on ad supported cable and attracts among the youngest demos. At launch, FYI premiered two high-profile Indian productions focusing on relationships: Real 2 States Couples and Rivals-in-law.

PCCW Media launched Viu over-the-top (OTT) mobile video entertainment service in India. Offered as a freemium service, Viu provides viewers in both markets with free access to thousands of hours of premium content for local users. For Viu India, consumers get free access to a vast archive of premium content from Bollywood and Hollywood top studios such as Media Prima, Sony Pictures, Sony Music, BBC, CBS, etc.

Punit Goenka and Amit Goenka, the top leaders of India's Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited (ZEEL) received the highest television honour at MIPTV – the Médaille d'Honneur Award. This was the first time any Indian broadcast executive has received the prestigious award.

PAKISTAN

According to the Pakistan Telecommunication Authority (PTA), mobile broadband subscribers in the country are expected to become 47 million by 2020 and 79 million by 2025. The current number of mobile broadband subscribers in 2016 is around five million. The mobile and related market is projected to be worth $17 billion per year by 2025, a huge jump from the current $4 billion a year.

In Vision 2025, PTA has stated that key service providers will be encouraged to offer extended Over-The-Top (OTT) services such as Viber, Skype and work with third party digital distributors and vice versa to offer consumers value through product-centric services in a collaborative framework. Broadband subscriptions in the country depicted a growth of over 40% in 2015, reaching 3.79 million subscribers as compared to 2.72 million in 2013.

As part of the Pakistan Electronic Media Regulatory Authority (PEMRA)'s endeavour to meet the cable TV Digitalisation deadline at the end of September 2016 and to ensure maximum facilitation and protection of subscribers' rights, PEMRA has finalised the minimum standards/specifications for Digital cable TV set-top boxes.

With these customised standards, PEMRA has made it compulsory for all cable operators and equipment providers to meet certain performance and audio/video decoding requirements, equipment conformity, electronic programme guide and logical channel numbering and more.

BANGLADESH

2016 was an eventful year for Bangladesh, with the launch of the country's first DTH service, RealVU, majorly changing the viewers' viewing experience. RealVU is available at selected and authorised trade partner locations in Dhaka, Sylhet and Chittagong. RealVU provides the best picture quality and

INDIA & SUBCONTINENT

HD sound to its viewers at the most affordable price, with their TV signal being available across the country. The operator is planned to expand trade partner network to every division in Bangladesh in August 2016.

At the CASBAA India Forum 2016, Digi Jadoo Broadband Ltd implemented the Verimatrix Content Authority System (VCAS) for the DVB Hybrid to secure content for its new Jadoo Digital service. Jadoo Digital became the first to launch HD, premium TV services via a hybrid DVB-C and OTT network in the Bangladesh market.

SRI LANKA

Dish TV launched a local service in Sri Lanka, a market where a relatively small legal pay-TV industry is set for take-off over the next few years. Dish TV targets Sri Lanka's sprawling grey market and illegal subscriber base with a collection of Indian and local free-to-air channels priced at 317 rupees (US$2.40) including tax, a new low price-point in the legal marketplace. The number is significantly cheaper than services offered by either of Sri Lanka's pay-TV operators – Dialog TV and Peo TV.

MTV Channel was awarded a DTH satellite license as the industry goes through technological changes. Sri Lanka's Dialog Axiata group is now the considered the market leader for pay-TV, with a 452,000 subscriber base which grew 36 percent in the year to March 2014.

Reports of a new OTT service in Sri Lanka surfaced in June 2016, but Dialog TV remains vague as to when it might be brought into the market. In a published report, a Dialog Axiata executive said the company believed the OTT industry was "heating up" and would be launching its own initiative that already was in active development. Dialog, in an effort to differentiate itself from OTT giant Netflix, aims to add new, unique local content that will be generated by local production houses.

Still, pay-TV penetration in Sri Lanka remains low. About 10% of the country's households had a pay-TV subscription in 2010, with researchers forecasting that number to more than double to 24% by 2020.

VIETNAM

According to CASBAA, Vietnam has an active and competitive pay-TV marketplace. More than half a dozen major multichannel programme distributors using the entire range of modern TV technologies compete to serve the nation's pay-TV households, which go beyond five million. Cable, satellite, Telco IPTV, digital terrestrial and mobile platforms are all available to urban consumers, and major new investments are being made to expand and upgrade network capabilities. Content is provided by a mix of domestic and international media firms, which tailor different content offerings at price points for consumers.

Technology used in the pay-TV sector in Vietnam's TV industry includes cable TV (e.g. analogue, digital or IPTV), digital terrestrial TV (e.g. DVB-T), direct-to-home (DTH) and mobile TV. Vietnam has a total of 67 broadcasters that manage 899 TV stations with 1,610 broadcasting machines that cover 98.9 percent of Vietnam's territory. The Ministry of Information and Communication stated that there are 40 pay-TV service providers in Vietnam and 4.5 million subscribers of which 70 percent of the pay-TV subscribers are controlled by the national TV, Vietnam Television (VTV).

In November 2014, Vietnam Television (VTV) has licensed 4 seasons of Armoza's crime drama The Arbitrator. The 4 seasons will comprise 45 episodes and will be locally known as Dối Mặt Trong Bóng đêm (Facing the Darkness). Production is set to start in 2015 with air dates starting from early 2016, and will be headed up by VTV's production company, the Vietnam Television Film Center (VFC).

CJ E&M-Vietnam co-produced film, Let Hoi Decide (De Mai Tinh2) has become the biggest box office hit in Vietnam announced by CJ E&M. Its ticket sales reached $3.85 million on 30 December, 2014, beating the record of the previous megahit film TEO EM. In 2015, CJ E&M is expected to further carry out co-production projects with partners in Vietnam. The company aims to distribute at least ten films and produce two to three local films every year. As part of the project, another Korea-Vietnam co-produced film 3 Girls is scheduled to be released in the first half of this year.

In March 2015, Global Agency announced the first big success of its unique music reality format The Remix in Vietnam. After its launch on VTV3, The Remix became the most popular TV show in the country.

In May 2015, Globo announced that it has licensed channel Las Viet, four captivating and engaging shows that promise to delight the Vietnamese – Precious Pearl, Helena's Shadow, Brazil Avenue, and The Life We Lead. Soon, the Pay-TV channel will debut a slot with only telenovelas from Globo, and the first title to be chosen was The Life We Lead. The channel is targeted toward female audiences, and all the Brazilian shows will be dubbed in Vietnamese.

MYANMAR

Television is one of the most prevalent forms of media consumption in Myanmar, and there are 12 local FTA TV channels. TV in Myanmar is predominantly FTA. On the FTA channels, a visible percentage of programming hours – roughly 35 to 40% – are international programmes across both weekdays and weekends, according to a report by Venture Consulting. Dramas (particularly Korean) predominate international content while live entertainment comprises the bulk of local content on FTA, adds the report.

The pay-TV industry, though available in most parts of Myanmar, has only two operators – Forever (delivered via DTT) and SkyNet (delivered via DTH) – with low subscriber counts, and carrying mostly international channels.

Telenor (Norway) and Ooredoo (Qatar) are the first international mobile operators in Myanmar, after winning a highly-contested auction of mobile licenses. According to the Financial Times, these are the first major public contracts given to international companies outside the natural resources sector and will liberalise a communications network that was previously tightly-controlled.

In the past, the military which was in power since 1962, imposed bans on permits for satellite dishes. From 1993 to 2001, the only satellite dishes legally used were those by hotels and businesses. A new ban on licences came into force in 2005 but was lifted in 2011. Venture Consulting reports that there are an estimated 450,000 unregistered satellite dishes across the country.

Piracy remains a significant threat to legal pay-TV operators in Myanmar. Currently, there is no law against pay-TV piracy, and while specific law exists to combat the production and distribution of illegal VCDs and DVDs, its enforcement is weak.

Following the huge success of Myanmar's first Satellite Forum held on November 2014, the Myanmar government has outlined plans to launch its own satellite within five years with "an open, fair and transparent tendering process". The debate will also be continued at next year's Myanmar Satellite Forum, set to take place on 18 November 2015 alongside Communicast 2015 at Myanmar Event Park, Yangon. Myanmar's first Satellite Forum attracted overwhelming support from international satellite operators, manufacturers and launch providers.

With a population of over 250 million, Indonesia is the world's fourth largest country by population and also the largest archipelago in the world. According to Nielsen based on a gross rate card that excluded digital, it showed ad spend to have reached Rp 118 trillion (US$8.77billion). Early 2015 saw a deep slowdown in the market but advertising expenditure recovered at over 7%, being only slightly slower than 2014.

Zenith Media expects the global advertising market to grow by US$77 billion from 2015 to 2018, with Indonesia in fourth place contributing to 5% of this extra advertising expenditure. A slight change is also expected in the ranking of the world's largest advertising markets from 2015 to 2018, where Indonesia is expected to replace Canada as the 10th largest advertising market.

Among Indonesian e-commerce start-ups, online marketplace Tokopedia and online ticket-booking platform Traveloka were found to have spent the most on TV advertising in 2015, with Tokopedia reportedly spending Rp 559billion (US$40.2million) while Traveloka spent a total of Rp 553billion (US$39.8million). Both companies were placed ninth and tenth position in the general top 10 list of companies that were the biggest spenders in TV advertisements in 2015.

CASBAA found that Indonesia had the lowest pay-TV penetration rate of TV households in Asia-Pacific in 2013, with a percentage of 9. However, it has the highest projected pay-TV subscriber growth in the Asia-Pacific, at 15%. A forecast for 2016 shows for the penetration of pay-TV subscribers to grow by 2% and for the number of pay-TV subscribers to be 6.3 million. 2017's forecast also sees a 2% rise in penetration and 7.1 million pay-TV subscribers.

NEW CHANNELS

Celestial Tiger Entertainment's Miao Mi made its debut on PT MNC Sky Vision network in January this year. Miao Mi is the first pan-regional Mandarin kids channel, created specifically to entertain and educate pre-school children regardless of their language background.

Turner International Asia-Pacific's Oh!K also extended its service to Indonesia this year, offering an OTT deal with first-run, localised and high quality video on mobile devices and online via Tribe.

KEY DEVELOPMENTS

Twitter has had many successful initiatives in Indonesia since the opening of its office in March 2015. Some of these include Peta Jakarta with the Jakarta city government, the Ramadhan campaign that managed to garner 20% of global conversation from Indonesia alone. Another initiative by Twitter Indonesia was the Independence Day campaign, Nyalakan Indonesia, which resulted in more than 440,000 tweets using the hashtag #R170.

CNN Indonesia began broadcasting in August 2015 for the first time from Transmedia broadcast centre in Jakarta. The start of CNN Indonesia follows the launch of its website, CNNIndonesia.com in October 2014. It offers a mix of local and international news and the latest in business and sports, all in Bahasa Indonesia. CNN Indonesia is part of a strategic effort by CNN International to explore ways to reach consumers more locally, regionally and internationally by partnering with other leading media organisations.

Beln Sports acquired the Indonesian English Premier League (EPL) rights for US$75 million from 2016 to 2019. Returns on EPL distribution have shown to be challenging especially for pay-TV in Indonesia. Packaging is the key in increasing the value of EPL for Beln on pay-TV platforms in Indonesia.

Zee Entertainment's Zee Hiburan channel has successfully completed its first year (as of March 2016) in Indonesia. It ventured into Indonesia to consolidate their position and market share, which is one of the fastest growing pay-TV markets in the Asia-Pacific region. The channel is currently available on five platforms in Indonesia – viz. ICTA, K Vision, Orange TV, First Media and Dili Timor Leste ETO Telko.

Echo Rights has also signed a new deal with Indonesian broadcaster SCTV for its Turkish drama Elif. In the first run of its first season, the show became number one in the timeslot, consistently scoring over a 20% share of audience as compared to the channel average of 10%.

In March this year, iflix announced the completion of a large new round of funding led by Sky PLC. Emtek Group also participated in the round through its subsidiary Surya Citra Media, one of Indonesia's leading television and content companies.

Being Asia's largest video-on-demand service, HOOQ debuted in Indonesia with over 35,000 hours of international and local titles. A start-up venture between Singtel, Sony Pictures Television and Warner Bros., it aims to drive the entertainment revolution and change the way Asians consume entertainment, particularly in the emerging markets.

Ideal Systems took the lead to design and build CNN Indonesia's new turnkey newsroom solution. The launch was the result of collaboration between CNN International and CT Corp Indonesia. The groundbreaking channel is a first of its kind for CNN in Southeast Asia, which delivers CNN's unique brand of high-quality news. CNN Indonesia also plans to acquire licensing for free-to-air broadcast in the upcoming DVB-T2 switchover in Indonesia.

The Mitsubishi Research Institute found that penetration of 4K television sets in Japan is set to escalate, from about 6% of households in 2016 to more than half of the marketplace by 2020 – ahead of forecasts for either North America or Europe.

According to research by Nielsen from March 2016, only 12% of internet users in Japan use OTT video service, less than 10% of respondents use cable TV and only less than 5% use paid satellite TV. Many Japanese purchase or rent DVDs or Blu-rays to access video content. Even though this is the case, OTT TV and video ad revenues are still growing.

Statistics indicates that the number of subscription video-on-demand (or SVOD) users are estimated grow to about 11 million by 2020. Considering Netflix's entry into Japan, the rising popularity of online video could help the company immensely in the long term and could seize this subscriber base.

Copyright

Japan's copyright law has a strong framework, imposing significant penalties with effective enforcement and content protection. Online piracy violates the copyright law, which may lead to the imposition of criminal sanctions (imprisonment and fines). Police are very pro-active in uncovering illegal uploading. Copyright collecting societies are required to register with the Commissioner of the Agency of Cultural Affairs and submitting the terms and conditions on how third parties are able to use the copyright. This applies to users of pay-TV and online TV operators.

OTT Services

Most of the OTT services are not specifically regulated, but some services such as NOTTV has been categorised as a broadcasting service that requires a license to air. Specific legislation requires operators who provide internet services to teenagers to adopt measures that minimise teenagers' exposure to harmful information, in respect of content.

Content Regulation

There are no local content quotas and no requirements to insert local classification and other content labels into international feeds. However, the Broadcast Law requires broadcasters to be politically fair, avoiding distorting facts and to provide balance in their broadcasts, to avoid harming public safety or morals. They also need to establish and publicly disclose standards for TV programmes.

KEY DEVELOPMENTS

In early April 2016, Japan is named the MIPCOM 2016 Country of Honour. Japan's production sector is shifting widely towards 4K, which will be witness at MIPCOM. MIPCOM 2016 takes a look at the history of Japanese animation, and introduces the latest shows on the international marketplace.

NHK commissioned a local version of all3media International's hit format Gogglebox. NHK in Japan aired a pilot of Studio Lambert format Gogglebox at the end of March 2016, a first for the channel in this genre that puts cameras in people's homes – with a unique production technique. NHK placed it on its main channel as one of the special programmes commemorating the 90th Anniversary of NHK's first ever broadcast.

Viacom International Media Networks (VIMN) Asia collaborated with AbemaTV, Inc. to introduce MTV HITS, a curated international music channel on the Internet TV station in Japan. MTV HITS on AbemaTV offers music fans in Japan access to a curated 24/7 international music experience anytime, anywhere. MTV HITS curates the hottest international music videos including international hits playlists, artists' specials showcasing recommended international artists' music videos, to thematic-based music videos for the channel on AbemaTV, in line with music interests and requirements of its young target audience.

Netflix launched in Japan in 2015, the company's first entry into a major Asian market. Netflix stated at the UBS Global Media and Communications Conference held during December 2015, that considering that Japanese viewers watched Japanese programming 95% of the time, Netflix's Japanese subscribers are streaming 30%–50% of their content in English.

The local government is the main media player in Macau; it runs terrestrial TV and radio stations and subsidizes the press. Citing these ties, the Vienna-based International Press Institute says it is “difficult to define the media as independent”. A state security law prohibits sedition and subversion against the Beijing government.

Macau boasts a sophisticated, independently regulated communications market due to Macau’s status as a Special Administrative Region (SAR) of the People’s Republic of China following its handover from Portugal. Gradual liberalisation has now fully opened the telecoms market with the full impact slowly becoming evident. Demand for telecom services is significantly driven by the millions of visitors that visit the tiny enclave every year. 87% of visitors classified as residents of mainland China or Hong Kong.

Macau’s fixed-line market is transitioning to a fibre broadband market as the incumbent Companhia de Telecomunicações de Macau (CTM) invests significantly in fibre access networks. As of 2016 CTM had deployed fibre broadband coverage to the majority of residential units and 100% of commercial buildings. CTM’s investment coincides with the entrance of Macau’s second fixed-line operator MTEL, with the latter a threat to the monopoly CTM has over the fixed broadband market, a monopoly made possible due to CTM's ownership of the underlying fixed access network.

Macau's mobile market is the most competitive sector of the telecoms market, with four mobile network operators and a mobile virtual network operator (MVNO) offering services. Competition is intense, with mobile penetration in excess of 200% due to multiple SIM card ownership as well as sales of SIM cards to visitors. Mobile broadband presents an alternative revenue growth opportunity, with LTE launches during 2015 allowing operators to offer more enticing products. In December 2015 CK 3 Macau launched its 4G LTE mobile network, making it the fourth and final LTE licensee to introduce commercial 4G services in the Special Administrative Region (SAR).

According to PwC's Malaysia Entertainment and Media Outlook 2015-2019, the country's entertainment and media industry is expected to experience an above average growth rate over the next five years. It is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.1% over 2014 to 2019, compared to the global CAGR of 5.1%. Internet access is growing at a rapid rate with a CAGR of 13.4% over 2014-2019, likely resulting from the deployment of 3G and LTE networks with a rapid adoption of smartphones.

GOVERNMENT EFFORTS

The National Film Development Corporation Malaysia (FINAS) has continued to increase its efforts in promoting Malaysia's visibility in the media market at various international content markets to showcase the quality and diversity of Malaysia's content industry. At the 2015 edition of MIPCOM, FINAS offered more than 1,600 hours of diverse creative content across feature film, animation, TV series, documentary and more.

The continuation of the Film in Malaysia Incentive (FIMI) in 2014 has also retained the momentum of estimated production spend in the country from approximately USD34 million in 2013 to USD77 million in 2014. FIMI had attracted 21 productions, out of which 16 are foreign. Over the years, Malaysia has contributed to a number of world-class animations, evident in the growing revenue of exports from creative content which has increased to more than USD140 million at the end of 2014 from USD46 million in 2009.

The FIMI scheme has increased the need of services by location managers with more foreign productions gathering interest to shoot in Malaysia. One of the things FINAS has done was to license people who can provide the service as location managers, in order to streamline and make known the cost and rates.

Beginning 2016, FINAS will put these location managers through courses to educate them on the area they are covering. They will also be equipped with the knowledge of logistics- nearest hotels, car rental, catering. FINAS is supporting the incentives by linking up these location managers with various relevant businesses (for logistics) so that production companies can get discounts and more.

KEY DEVELOPMENTS

In February 2016, Telekom Malaysia Berhad (TM) and Viu announced their partnership with the launch of the latter in Malaysia. Viu is a freemium OTT service that brings to consumers, top quality fresh, same-day, localised and personalised content from top studios. Beginning mid-March this year, TM's UniFi and Streamyx broadband customers will enjoy access to Viu as part of their subscriptions in addition to their existing HypTV service.

In that same month, Primeworks Studios further strengthened its ties with Japan through a collaboration with Hokuriku Asahi Broadcasting Co. Ltd. (HAB) to produce Mad Markets Ishikawa: Japan Specials. The Japanese broadcast network came together with Primeworks Studios to produce a four-episode special of Mad Markets Ishikawa that will be aired every Sunday.

February 2016 also saw the acquisitions of rights for two football events. The Football Malaysia Limited Liability Partnership had announced Media Prima as the free-to-air broadcaster for the country's top football leagues and cup competitions for the next three seasons from 2016 to 2018. Astro Malaysia Holdings Berhad (Astro) had also successfully secured broadcast rights to the English Premier League (EPL) for its next three seasons from 2016/17 to 2018/19. All 380 Premier League matches every season will be available LIVE on Astro TV in full HD and on all mobile devices via Astro on the Go (AOTG).

Astro also launched its on-demand offering (OD) last October where Malaysians can now pick their favourite shows and watch instantly on TV or a device. Consumers can select from thousands of entertainment choices. OD is available to Astro customers through an Internet-connected Personal Video Recorder (PVR) at home, or via Astro on the Go (AOTG) on a smartphone, laptop or tablet. Non-Astro customers can also enjoy OD content via AOTG.

Malaysian-owned content company, Ideate Media had teamed up with AMC Studios, IDW Entertainment and Circle of Confusion early this January to produce a new original scripted series for BBC America. Dirk Gently is a comedic thriller following an eccentric detective and his reluctant assistant. The series is an adaptation of British writer Douglas Adams' wildly successful Dirk Gently comic novels.

Malaysia's Prodigee Media and its digital media division, WebTVAsia signed five strategic partnerships with seven global media companies from China, Korea, U.S. and France. A film investment and co-production MOU between Prodigee and Heyi Pictures, Stellar Mega Pictures and Wanda Pictures has been signed. Three strategic partnership MOUs has been signed between Prodigee and Whaley Technology; WebTVAsia and CJ E&M; and Prodigee with Stylehaul. Dailymotion has also signed a content licensing agreement with Prodigee to develop, manage and monetise digital video content on the Dailymotion platform.

Last June, iflix had announced the launch of its revolutionary new service. Consumers in Malaysia and the Philippines can sign up for a 14-day trial granting full access to all of iflix's world-class features and content without having to submit credit card or payment details to participate.

copyright infringement, but has been used relatively little due to heavy cost burdens on complainants.

OTT REGULATIONS

OTT-TV services are subjected to limited regulation, with mandated self-regulation of advertising and content by domestic operators in respect of streamed linear broadcasts, but not towards on demand content. Censorship rules regarding trading of objectionable material over the internet are in place against local operators. In theory, the same self-regulatory and legislative rules apply to offshore websites, but has not been tested yet.

KEY DEVELOPMENTS

Freeview New Zealand rolled out on demand service FreeviewPlus on their satellite platform, meaning that the service is no longer subject to coverage restrictions, being available all over New Zealand with a compatible device. The first technology of its kind in New Zealand, FreeviewPlus combines all available On Demand content from TVNZ OnDemand, 3NOW & Māori Television On Demand, with live free-to-air broadcasts – creating an impressive library of top New Zealand and international content all in one place, available to enjoy any time, subscription-free.

New Zealand welcomed U.S. home and lifestyle brand HGTV as a new free channel available to all New Zealanders. HGTV is the dedicated destination for the very best in home improvement, DIY, design, real estate and gardening television content. HGTV launched on Freeview channel 17 in June 2016.

IndiaCast strengthened its footprint in the New Zealand market. In February 2016, IndiaCast reinforced Viacom18's COLORS' presence to viewers in New Zealand, giving access to offerings from the COLORS content library as part of SKY's foreign language subscription channel line-up. The COLORS bouquet of offerings includes a combination of fiction dramas, non-fiction, reality shows, LIVE events and blockbuster movies. The programming line-up caters to many entertainment needs of the Indian Diaspora across the world making COLORS the one-stop entertainment destination for viewers.

New Zealand's Rialto channel debuted in Asia with plans to reach 11 countries in the region with an estimated reach to 186 million households by 2017. The new documentary channel comprises approximately 20 per cent New Zealand content with the rest coming from the U.S., Britain and Asia, along with local content from the region. Rialto Channel, a premium pay-TV channel in New Zealand has been in operation for 17 years on the Sky platform. They also air other genres including British films, foreign films, documentary channels and more.

-Asia Pacific Multichannel TV 2015, by CASBAA

With a population of over 102 million and internet penetration up by 8% to 44%, the Philippines proves good business for the pay-TV industry, especially direct-to-home (DTH) satellite and cable TV broadcast services.

According to SNL Kagan, the multichannel industry in the Asia-Pacific region is positioned for another year of growth. Market fragmentation is expected to impede digital upgrades due to localized ownership of last-mile networks. Consolidation of local small operators into large-scale MSOs is therefore called for to facilitate digitization initiatives.

The Philippines is the one market in Southeast Asia experiencing relatively robust macro fundamentals, boosting telecoms, pay-TV and advertising industry growth, according to the Asia Pacific Multichannel TV Advertising 2016 by CASBAA. The publication also foresees Cignal to add ~250,000 new customers this year but ARPU growth will be muted until up-selling and packaging improves. SkyCable on the other hand is adding a modest level of new customers every year with ARPU remaining healthy.

The company reported higher third quarter revenues of PhP10.1 billion, 8% higher than the revenues generated during the second quarter of 2015.

According to Kantar Media, the top 10 programmes for free-to-air television during this period were all produced by ABS-CBN. Also, Star Cinema has continued to dominate the local box office, generating close to PhP2 billion in ticket sales. Star Cinema's 10th release for the year, The Love Affair has become the group's highest-grossing film shown overseas. Kantar Media uses a nationwide panel size of 2,609 urban and rural homes that represent 100% of the total Philippine TV viewing population.

As at January 2016, the list of the most watched programmes include FPJ's Ang Probinsyano with an average national TV rating of 39.8% followed by Pangako Sa'Yo with 31.4% which tied at second with Maalaala Mo Kaya and Wansapanataym. Dance Kids maintained its good showing (29.8%) at third place.

Primetime newscast TV Patrol continues to be the choice news source of most Filipinos as the only news programme in the top 10 programmes of January 2016, landing at the fourth spot with an average national TV rating of 28.7%.

KEY DEVELOPMENTS

Early August last year saw the launch of Mezzo Live HD, a premier classical music, jazz and dance channel. The channel launched on SKYCable and Destiny Cable in the Philippines, available 24/7 to subscribers of the cable network. Marking the first agreement for the channel in the Philippines, this is a major step in the channel's development in South-east Asia.

In July 2015, E! Entertainment Television launched the I Heart Pinoy block, registering significant ratings growth. The block features back-to-back premieres of hit original reality series It Takes Gutz To Be A Gutierrez and The StyleList, Inc. Viewing of the block was dominated by a young and affluent demographic, which improved significantly from historical averages.

Armoza Formats' I Can Do That! had scored a commission with ABS-CBN last May. The show will be produced in-house and marks the first time that ABS-CBN has acquired an Israeli format, and the first format from Armoza to air in the Philippines.

On 16 March 2015, 9TV officially rebranded to become CNN Philippines, the predominantly English 24 hour free-to-air news channel and website. CNN Philippines will operate from studio facilities in Manila and offers a dynamic combination of local and international news as well as current affairs, feature programming and documentaries.

Scripps Networks Interactive had announced the launch of HGTV in the Philippines on two platforms SKYCable and Cignal Digital TV. The home lifestyle channel premiered on 1 March 2015 with a robust line-up of top-rated programmes about property, hybrid construction, design and extreme spaces. To cater to local audiences, Scripps Networks will also produce localised original short-form content Extreme Homes and I Like This.

RTL CBS Entertainment HD also announced in February 2015 the launch of a dedicated feed for the Philippines. The separate feed comes just over a year after the channel's launch in the country. The same day telecasted line-up includes Entertainment Tonight, The Insider, The Late Show with David Letterman and Scorpio.

as Tecmo-Koei, Lucasfilm, Double Negative, Electronic Arts and Ubisoft. Local companies like Ratloop Asia, Sparky Animation and Scrawl Studios have also responded eagerly too, producing original content for export and entering strategic partnerships with international distributors.

According to Deloitte, Singapore's games and animation industries, together with online/mobile media, have demonstrated robust growth, posting a CAGR of 26% from 2006-2010. In 2010 it contributed $1.2 billion in VA and $1.5 billion revenue to the economy, and employed an estimated 11,000 workers.

Singapore is an ideal location for creating and deploying new content and for managing intellectual property (IP), as it has the best IP protection in Asia and a large, multilingual talent pool in both traditional and new media. Development and animation studios, and companies which provide game hosting will also find Singapore attractive due to the island's large pool of graduates in IT and programming. For companies in the printing and publishing sector, Singapore is a nexus for Asian financial and professional news, and a cost-effective printing and distribution hub.

Singapore offers proximity and excellent connectivity to regional markets – markets that have a tremendous appetite for interactive media and digital media entertainment. As a cosmopolitan, urbanised Asian city-state, it offers a unique blend of Eastern and Western cultural influences. The government has also put in place policies to attract and retain talent from all over the world, creating a melting pot of creative talent for companies to tap into.

Since the 1990s, Singapore has attracted a number of global broadcasters to its shores. There are now a large number of major broadcasting networks uplinking their channels from Singapore to their regional audiences. These include Discovery Networks Asia Pacific, CNBC Asia Pacific and ESPN Star Sports. From broadcast, the sector has progressed into content production. One example is the 2011 AXN reality series "Cash Cab Asia". Produced by AZN, the project was filmed in Singapore, with post-production work undertaken by Active TV.

Over the years, Singapore-made TV content has gained recognition, winning international awards and entertaining audiences from some 70 countries around the world.

Award winning content from Singapore includes factual entertainment series Very!'s Chasing Happiness, which won a Rockie at the BANFF World Media Festival in 2013; and The Great Elephant Gathering by Beach House Pictures, which reaped a Silver Medal Award for the Nature & Wildlife category at the New York Festivals 2013.

Moving from providing services-for-hire to co-owning and creating original content, Singapore media companies have also proven to be strong co-production partners. An example is Serangoon Road, where Singapore-based Infinite Studios partnered with HBO Asia, Australia Broadcasting Corporation (ABC) and Western Australia to co-produce HBO Asia's first original series. Serangoon Road is a ten episode hour-long detective series set against the tumultuous backdrop of 1960s Singapore. Other recent co-productions include Kakadu, a documentary series on Kakadu National Park in Australia by Beach House Pictures, Northern Pictures and ABC.

Beyond producing content for television, more producers are exploring transmedia storytelling and new formats, extending the TV experience to multiple platforms. Notable multi-media content created include Mediacorp's drama 96°C Café and Beach House Pictures' Hidden Cities Extreme, a travel and adventure series. 96°C Café was first telecast online on xinmsn.com and continued its run as a 20-episode series on free-to-air (FTA) TV; while Hidden Cities Extreme had viewers engaged on its Facebook page which shared videos, images and upcoming episodes of the programme.

In addition, being strategically located in Asia, with excellent content production, aggregation, distribution and broadcasting capabilities and a burgeoning creative community, Singapore has become the natural home and springboard to other parts of Asia for some of the world's most established global media companies. They include AXN, BBC, CNBC Asia, Discovery Asia, FremantleMedia Enterprises, HBO Asia, MTV Asia, Nickelodeon and Walt Disney Television.

INCREASING INITIATIVES TO IMPROVE INDUSTRY STANDARDS

Recognising the industry's need to better understand pay-TV viewing and its reach, StarHub partnered Nielsen to launch StarHub SmarTAM, Singapore's first Television Audience Measurement system using Return Path Data (RPD) technology, late September 2015. StarHub has also commissioned Nielsen to support the subscription and sales of SmarTAM data.

The TV audience measurement system tracks both real-time and time-shift viewing of TV content and advertising spots across more than 200 StarHub TV channels. StarHub SmarTAM has the ability to provide highly accurate and dynamic audience segmentation, track specific media consumption habits and facilitates advertising campaign retargeting beyond TV in real-time.

The Beijing Film Academy (BFA) and Singapore Media Academy (SMA) announced in October 2015, the launch of the prestigious curriculum of the Diploma in Filmmaking in Singapore. BFA and SMA are hoping to nurture the next generation of media leaders who are truly international through this cross-cultural collaboration. SMA will accept the first intake of the diploma course in early 2016.

The SMF this year has opened up more avenues for strategic partnerships, creative collaborations and investment opportunities into the region. This is most evident from the Southeast Asian Film Financing Project Market (SAFF) where 10 in-development fiction and non-fiction feature film projects will be matched with commissioners, investors and co-production partners. The SAFF received an overwhelming response with a total of 148 project submissions from 22 countries as at 30 September this year. ATF 2016 will also host several masterclasses for budding producers.

ON THE GLOBAL-SCALE

In other news, Viddsee raised USD2.3 million after bringing Japan-based CyberAgent Ventures (CAV) as lead investor in its latest round of funding to develop the new wave of mobile-powered cinema, starting with Asia. Singapore stormed to the global market when it headed to MIPCOM 2015 with more than 600 hours of Asian content. MDA had led a delegation of 16 Singapore media companies to Cannes, including live action and animation producers, as well as distributors.

In October 2015, MDA, MediaCorp and Oak3 Films announced that Spelling Armadillo has been nominated for the 4th International Emmy Kids Awards in the category of Kids: TV Movie / Mini-Series. This is the first time a Southeast Asian production is nominated under the Kids: TV Movie / Mini-series category in the International Emmy Kids Awards.

Korean IPTV to exceed US$7 Billion by 2020

South Korea's never-ending repertoire of Korean drama never fails to bring multitudes of audiences to their screens. Its pay-TV's continuous growth in IPTV is flourishing, with an expected exceed revenue of US$7 Billion by 2020. Many global dramas are still entering the market, with some being localised.

IPTV

IPTV was introduced to the country in 2009. Since then, the only three IPTV operators, KT Corporation, SK Broadband and LG Uplus have continued to grow at a healthy pace. Media Partners Asia (MPA) projected that they would have added a combined 1.65 million new customers last year.

The IPTV market in South Korea is expected to exceed US$7 Billion by 2020, growing at a CAGR of over 11 per cent, according to Technavio. This may be due to the enhanced interactivity features being inserted, such as streaming advertisements for shopping during regular programming. Interactive services such as telephony and smart browsing are also becoming more popular, pulling consumers towards IPTV technology.

Advanced technology that facilitates multi-screen viewing is also another factor to the steady growth of subscribers for IPTV. The increasing penetration of IPTV into the market among fibre TV internet subscribers in South Korea is expected to be the main driver of the growth of the market during the forecast period.

Pay-TV policies

Regulation

Regulation by the Korea Communications Commission (KCC) and the Ministry of Science, ICT & Future Planning is becoming increasingly complex as pay-TV itself diversifies, with the onslaught of new technology.

Copyright laws provide strong protection with significant penalties. Online piracy is still a major problem in South Korea, similar to other countries. Piracy competes with pay-TV, but the Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism has utilised its site blocking powers against infringing offshore websites, as permitted by Korean copyright law. Acrimonious disputes over "retransmission consent" of FTA channels have resulted in government intervention.

Regulation of OTT services

A self-regulatory system is in place to apply to advertising on the OTT-TV services. Advertising rules, local content quotas, general content rules, age rating and content-sharing rules should apply for-profit OTT services, although not tested to date. The law does not distinguish between local and offshore services and the Korea Communications Commission (KCC) may block any non-complying offshore services.

Content regulation

A self-regulatory approach is also evident to content regulation by pay-TV operators, with supervision and standard-setting by the KCC.

Broadcasting operators must display age ratings for programmes, which are determined by the KCC, during broadcast of the programme. Local pay-TV producers are responsible for inserting the age ratings into foreign programming.

Key Developments

CJ E&M announced the rebranding of Channel M to tvN, starting June 2016. tvN is Korea's No.1 pay-TV channel with top-rated variety shows and record breaking hit dramas. Celebrating its 10th anniversary this year, tvN redefined Korea's pay-TV market with top-notch original productions and continues to strengthen the "tvN" brand with the most creative and ground-breaking shows for all age groups.

KT and DreamWorks Animation launched the DreamWorks Channel on KT's network. South Korea was the sixth territory in Asia to debut the channel, featuring more original content than any other kids' channel in Asia. The initial line-up of shows at launch included Dreamwork DWA's signature series DreamWorks

Dragons: Race to the Edge and Didotrix, DWA's first original series.

Globo licensed two more of its hit shows for South Korean media group EPG. The group, which has already aired super productions like Precious Pearl (2014 International Emmy winner), Brazil Avenue, and Merciless, bets on the sensitivity of Parts of Me and on the disco charm of Boogie Oogie to fascinate the country's audience. The telenovelas, scheduled to air in the second half of the year, are part of Globo's 2016 international catalogue.

Major K-drama hit Descendants of the Sun was aired on the KBS2 channel from February to April 2016. AGB Nielsen's nationwide viewership share ratings on its last aired episode saw a whopping 38.8%. Being in high demand, KBS then went on to air 3 additional special episodes for viewers, showing highlights and the behind-the-scenes process.

tvN added another masterpiece to its 2016 line-up, announcing The Good Wife Korea, produced by director Jung-Hyo Lee (I Need Romance, Heartless City) and written by Sang-Woon Han (Spy). The Good Wife Korea is a remake of the U.S. version of The Good Wife, a popular series currently in its 7th season since it first aired on CBS back in 2009. The show is the first ever U.S. series to be remade in Korea.

There are bilateral copyright agreements protecting content owners, since the government has no ability to enter into major IPR conventions. Taiwan copyright law should protect online television broadcasts and programmes broadcast online, but in practice, there is no enforcement possible against overseas websites.

Content regulation

Cable TV must provide at least 20% local programming in its mix. With an ample local supply of content, this condition does not prove to be a problem to broadcasters. DTH, IPTV and mobile have no similar requirement. There are general guidelines on content control, but overall controls not burdensome. The regulator is becoming more interventionist on content standards, motivated by concerns about content quality.

OTT SERVICES

OTT services are not regulated, although some NCC members have proposed draft amendments to the broadcasting legislation, contemplating on the extension of regulation to this area. It is not yet clear to which online content services the amendments are intended to apply nor how the provisions would be enforced against offshore operators.

Chinese OTT platform iQiyi set up a webpage in traditional Chinese characters targeting Taiwanese subscribers and like Netflix, started charging them a monthly service fee for access to its content. iQiyi did not establish an office in Taiwan, unlike Netflix. This is due to the fact that there is no law that requires OTT content providers to establish a branch in Taiwan.

KEY DEVELOPMENTS

January saw Netflix in Taiwan, as part of its Asian extension plan. Once launched, internet users will be able to subscribe to Netflix and instantly watch a programme from the popular TV shows and movies in high-definition or even Ultra HD 4K on any Internet-connected screen. Additionally, younger viewers will find a wide selection of programming for kids. This was due to the consumer demand for more foreign movies in Taiwan. Netflix added Chinese, in both traditional and simplified characters, to cater to the Taiwanese and Chinese-speaking audiences.

In April this year, Sesame Workshop, through its master licensee for content distribution in Southeast Asia and Taiwan, Thaole Entertainment, closed deals to broadcast a slate of Sesame Street programmes in 2016.

TAIWAN

Cookie's Crumby Pictures was dubbed into Mandarin for Taiwan's Eastern Broadcasting's cable channel – YOYO TV.

In March, CatchPlay introduced a new on-demand service in Taiwan, featuring content from Warner Brothers, Walt Disney, NBC Universal, various independent Hollywood-based production studios and not forgetting, Asian and Chinese-language films. CatchPlay has a library of some 2,000 movies, and is charging NT$60 (US$1.81) or NT$80 for a streaming movie or NT$250 (US$7.70) a month for unlimited titles.

penetration is still growing strongly with over 90% of subscribers now on 3G networks.

Even though pay-TV growth is limited due to free satellite and digital terrestrial, TrueVisions has managed to grow by repackaging its products effectively. Much of its pay-TV growth is being driven aggressively with broadband bundling.

OTT REGULATIONS

For OTT services in Thailand, there is no economic regulation of internet-based content services. However, there are some restrictions on advertising certain goods and services online (e.g. firearms, medicine, food, fortune-tellers) and content (e.g. obscenity, offending the monarchy). Enforcement of content restriction is stricter in respect of local services as opposed to offshore OTT services.

KEY DEVELOPMENTS

Magine TV's first step into the Asian mobile TV market in October 2015 ended up in a partnership with Thailand-based cable network CTH. Magine TV will power CTH's OTT offering, distributing their entertainment and sports channel including the Barclays Premiere League coverage across Thailand.

Netflix arrived in Thailand in January this year. Since then, only Thai censorship was incorporated leaving Thai subtitles and other support for later. This was the result of a global expansion by Netflix to 130 new countries overnight. Netflix is offering a free, no-obligation trial of its services for a month, with the option to switch between three payments plan then after.

GRB Entertainment clinched programming deals for 18 factual entertainment titles with Thailand's Next Step Company. Many extreme nature and wildlife titles were sold, such as Expeditions to the Edge and I Cloned My Pet.

Smoke & Mirrors (S&M) launched a new joint venture with Oriental Post, a subsidiary of leading Thai entertainment company, Kantana Group. The new venture saw S&M take its first step into the ASEAN region with the launch of Smoke & Mirrors Bangkok. The newly established company is a full service post-production facility offering on-set supervision, colour grading, online compositing and finishing, CG / 3D animation and a comprehensive visual effect department, employing leading creative talents globally.

In April, AIS partnered with Turner to carry five of its channels on the AIS Playbox OTT service and the Play mobile app. This led to almost 40 million AIS mobile subscribers being able to live-stream the five linear channels and to watch catch-up content. Turner is the first international broadcaster to offer content on the AIS platforms. This is also the first time HLN and the World Heritage Channel were made available in Thailand. The five channels are Warner TV, Toonami, World Heritage Channel, HLN and Boomerang.

AIS switched on commercial voice-over-LTE (VoLTE) service across Thailand. It gives users with the proper device with 'crystal clear' HD voice quality, reduced background noise, faster call connection and the ability to access the Internet simultaneously while on a VoLTE call.

With the passing of time, she will decide to defy whoever gets in her path in order

On Another Level (Original Entertainment Format)

On Another Level is an original musical format from Caracol Television which gathers the best professional singers in the country who are looking for fame. The singer has to go inside an elevator located on the first level and sing a song for 90 seconds. On the third level, three judges will listen, and if they like the performance, at least two of them must press the button so the elevator takes the singer up to the stage located on the third level, where the contestant's family, the three judges and the audience await. The selected singers will put their level to test in the second stage, when they perform along with other singers the same song but in different musical genres (Pop, Rock, Latin). In these fusions, the participants will have to work as a team to give a great show, creating a version that the audience has never heard before. When they finish the song, a member of the group will be eliminated and the survivors will continue to ascend levels until they are part of the four finalists, which will be picked by the public and get as a prize, a tour of national concerts.
